Roanoke: Search for the Lost Colony MON OCTOBER 26, 9:00 PM

Seventy-five years ago, the discovery of a set of stones gripped the world, shocked historians, and destroyed careers in an attempt to find the answer to America's lost colony of Roanoke. Regardless of their veracity, the stones shed light on America's first mystery, and are a beacon to those who are drawn to the lost colony of Roanoke. Today, historian David LaVere, the leading authority on the stones, is about to launch an investigation that may finally answer the question of what happened to the lost colony. Joined by stonemasons Jim and Bill Viera, and funded by an ailing North Carolina businessman, Frederick Lawson Willard, the team will come together to simultaneously try to authenticate the first stone and take part in an unprecedented excavation in hopes to solve the riddle once and for all.
