

VOCEVISTA

WORKSHOP AND CONCERT

WITH ALUMNA KIRSTIN ARIEL AND ROBERT DUNLAP

Tuesday & Wednesday, Oct. 10-11

WORKSHOP / OCT. 11 / 9 A.M.-3:30 P.M.

BANKS RECITAL HALL, BURD CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS
$30 FOR INSTRUCTORS, $10 FOR STUDENTS

Brenau alumna Kirstin Ariel, along with Robert Dunlap, will lead a workshop utilizing VoceVista, software and hardware for singers to technically analyze their vocals. The focus of the workshop will be to demonstrate how to find effective and accurate ways to measure subglottal pressure, formant frequencies and other performance techniques such as onset and consonant use in hopes of improving vocal tone and ensemble singing through the use of the VoceVista software.

Kirstin Ariel, WC '13

CONCERT / OCT. 10 / 7:30 P.M.

PEARCE AUDITORIUM

As a bonus to the workshop, Ariel and Dunlap will give a concert featuring repertoire by familiar classical composers including Charles Gounod, Johann Strauss and Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky, as well as contemporary composers Tom Cipullo and Ben Moore.
